STATE MOVES TO DISMISS

Last of the Cox Murder Cases Off the Docket.

Elbert Hargis, Bill Britton and John Abner Free.

Commonwealth Failed To Get Important Witness.

UNABLE TO MAKE OUT CASE.

Sandy Hook, Ky., Oct. 9.—[Special.]—The last of the criminal prosecutions connection with the murders which gave to a neighboring county the sobriquet of "Bloody Breathitt," was closed here this afternoon when John Abner, charged with complicity in the murder of Dr. B. D. Cox, was dismissed on motion of Commonwealth's Attorney John Waugh, who took exactly the same view of the third case as of those of Bill Britton and Elbert Hargis, which were dismissed this morning.

A process was taken at the last term of court for three nonresident witnesses whose presence the Commonwealth deemed necessary to a successful prosecution. Of these three Moses Feltner and John Smith were recognized to-day, but Dr. C. E. Baker, of North Dakota, a nephew of the murdered man, was not present.

Waugh Keeps Promise.

At the last term, when attempting to induce Special Judge Moody to agree to a continuance when all witnesses but John Smith were present, Commonwealth's Attorney Waugh promised that should Judge Moody grant the continuance the Commonwealth in case of failure to get the appearance of witnesses would move to dismiss the cases. The failure of the close relatives of the murdered man to appear put the matter up to Attorney Waugh in keeping with his promise, and in each of the three cases the same action was taken. The cases against Elbert Hargis and Bill Britton were called at the session this morning. Commonwealth's Attorney Waugh filed a written statement in which he said that it was impossible to make out a case against either defendant without the presence of Dr. C. E. Baker, of North Dakota.

At the last term of court a process was taken for him and two other nonresident witnesses, John Smith and Moses Feltner. The latter two were present, however, in court. After reading his statement the Prosecutor moved to dismiss the case against Hargis and Britton, and the motion was sustained by the court.

Abner Also Dismissed.

Similar action was taken at the afternoon session of court in the case against John Abner, and Judge Moody declared an adjournment.

Elbert Hargis is spending the night here and will leave for Jackson tomorrow.

Judge James Hargis and nearly all the parties connected with the trial left for their homes to-day.

Judge Moody, Attorneys Pollard and Young will leave tomorrow morning by way of Morehead.

DAUGHTERS OF CONFEDERACY

ADOPT MORGAN MONUMENT PLAN AT PARIS.

COMMITTEE OF TWENTY-FOUR CONFEDERATES RECOMMENDED.

TO CHOOSE OFFICERS TO-DAY.

Paris, Ky., Oct. 9.—[Special.]—The eleventh annual convention of the Daughters of the Confederacy met in the Circuit Court room of Bourbon's new courthouse. The convention was called to order by Mrs. R. J. Neely, of the Richmond Hayes Chapter, of Paris, who delivered the welcome address.

The response was by Mrs. L. McFar. Blakenore. The Committee on Credentials was as follows: Mrs. W. G. Talbot, Paris; Mrs. Royster, Lancaster; and Mrs. Gray, Louisville.

While the convention waited for the report of the committee Mr. and Mrs. Long rendered several Southern songs. The report of the committee on Credentials showed 189 duly accredited delegates. The report of the president, Mrs. Roy McKinney, was then read, after which reports of the various officers followed. The most interesting report of the convention was that of the committee in charge of the movement to erect a monument to the memory of Gen. John Morgan. The report of the committee, which was adopted, showed that nearly $4,000 of the amount had been raised. The committee recommended that the monument be erected in Lexington and it is to be a bronze equestrian statue of the famous Confederate.

An Advisory Committee, composed of twenty-four prominent Confederates, had been formed. The report was adopted as it came from the committee. The convention adjourned until Thursday, when officers for the ensuing year will be elected and the place for the next meeting selected.

Bridges, Carrollton; Deputy Grand Master, John Carroll, New Castle; Grand Secretary, R. G. Elliott, Lexington; Grand Warden, L. N. Williams, Lexington.

One new law was enacted which changed an old one to read so that any member with a dismissal card shall be entitled to deposit it free of charge in any lodge in his jurisdiction. After a few minutes he returned with him lying in the Deaconess Hospital. Last night his condition was still critical, but it is believed that he will recover.

The case was continued until tomorrow.

WINCHESTER GETS BURLEY HOUSE

Question of Crop Next Year Not Decided.

Will Come Up At Special Meeting October 29.

Committee Named To Manage New Warehouse.

SAMPLES ORDERED SENT.

Winchester, Ky., Oct. 9.—[Special.]—The Burley Tobacco Society adjourned to-night after a strenuous session. The principal matter that engrossed their attention was the selection of a place for a warehouse where samples of every hoghead of tobacco controlled by the Society of Equity might be stored for the inspection of purchasers. Louisville, Cincinnati and Maysville were applicants, but dropped out of the fight last night, leaving Lexington and Winchester to contest for the prize. Both these cities made a strenuous fight, but Winchester finally won, owing principally to the good work of the Commercial Club.

This city is to furnish free a warehouse, heat, light and offices. It means much for this city, as fully 60,000 hogheads of tobacco will be sold here annually and hundreds of thousands of dollars will pass through our banks.

Executive Committee.

The Executive Committee as appointed to-day is composed of S. T. Prewitt, of Clark; J. R. Bascom, of Bath; C. R. Williams, of Lexington; W. M. Millan, of Paducah; R. B. Thomas, of Scott; J. A. Reed, of Mason; Fred Stueby, of Gallatin; and J. E. Brown, of Shelby. Most of the real work of the organization will be done by this committee, as they will have charge of all the details of management, grading, assorting, etc. An order was passed that all samples shall be sent at once to this city and that all must be here by November 1.

A motion to require all tobacco to be delivered to the Equity warehouses in winter order was largely discussed and was finally settled by leaving the matter in each county in the hands of the county board of control.

No Action On 1908 Planting.

The question as to whether the Society of Equity should take a stand in favor of raising no crop in 1908 brought out a great diversity of opinion. One prominent speaker said that if a big crop should be put out before the crop of 1908 is sold it would be impossible to either pool it or finance it, and the mere prospect of a big crop is already retarding the sales of the crops now on hand. Much warmth was manifested during the discussion. This morning the matter was laid on the table, but this afternoon it was again taken up. The report of the delegates had gone and by a vote of thirteen to nine it was determined to prepare pledges to return resented and the whole matter was referred back to the counties and will be settled at a special meeting to be held here October 29. The opponents of the measure felt that the resolution could not be enforced and would breed lawlessness, such as has prevailed in some parts of Western Kentucky.

DARK POOL CLOSES TO-DAY.

Last Chance For Buyers To Secure Crop At Present Prices.

Paducah, Ky., Oct. 9.—[Special.]—Tomorrow night the books of the Tobacco Association will be closed and those who have not pledged their 1907 crop of tobacco will be barred from doing so. Reports received at association headquarters in Paducah to-day indicate that already 85 per cent. of the crop in the "black patch" has been pledged. It is expected that a large per cent. of the acreage that has not been pledged and has not been bought by the independent buyers will also be pledged.

A prominent grower who was at headquarters this afternoon stated that he expected a larger acreage pledged tomorrow than on any day during the season, the growers having issued an ultimatum to the buyers that they must pay the prices or their crop will go into the association tomorrow. Another fact that will cause farmers to pledge their unsold tobacco will be the policy of the association managers to strictly adhere to the rule not to allow any tobacco to be pledged after the final limit.

RECEIVERS APPOINTED FOR BANKING COMPANY.

Baltimore, Md., Oct. 9.—Receivers were to-day appointed on the application of Alexander H. Robertson, with the assent of the company, for the Farmers' Trust, Banking and Deposit Company, of this city. The receivers are Messrs. Beverly W. Minter and Ellridge S. Johnson.

The Farmers' Trust, Banking and Deposit Company, of Baltimore, was yesterday placed in the hands of receivers. The company was organized in 1899, representing Bracken county. He had retired from the active practice of law. He had been a member of the firm of Clarke & Field, one of the strongest law firms in the county. He leaves a family. He was a large land owner.

PEARL BUTTON FACTORY FOR CANNELTON, IND.

Cannelton, Ind., Oct. 9.—[Special.]—The Merchants and Manufacturers' Association, of which Lee Rodman is president, has just landed a new industry for this city, a pearl button factory, to employ twenty men when in full operation. J. F. Boepel, of Paducah, is the owner.

ventport, Iowa, the original inventor of the button machine, is at the head of the new undertaking, and in return for a well-located building will give himself to pay out not less than $20,000 in wages within the next three years. The machines are to be installed immediately and it is thought the plant will be running by December 1.

PRESIDENT PROBABLY HAD DAY OF ACTIVITY.

Word From Camp Was To Effect That Conditions Were Favorable For Hunting.

Stamboul, La., Oct. 9.—Not since early have any tidings been received from the President's hunting camp, and the word then was confined to a mere statement that preparations had been made for a busy day.

The best local judges of the conditions express their opinion that the day must have been one of activity if not of results. The rain had left a faultless sky and the temperature was all that could be desired, neither too hot nor cold. These circumstances taken with the satisfactory condition of the ground, which is in the interest of the dogs, the residents say should make it possible for a party who go well equipped to get a bear if there is one in the Bayou Rouge. Official business is so quiet that Secretary Latta found it possible to close the temporary White House at the Shreve residence for the afternoon and go out for a picnic hunt.

GIRL PUPILS Flee From Burning College At Millersburg.

SCHOOL DESTROYED AND TOWN NARROWLY ESCAPES.

LOSS ESTIMATED AT $30,000 WITH $15,000 INSURANCE.

Will Rebuild Structure.

Paris, Ky., Oct. 9.—[Special.]—In a fire which destroyed the Millersburg Female College, the town of Millersburg, eight miles north of Paris, narrowly escaped being wiped off the map shortly after 9 o'clock this morning. The college is a large structure and at the time of the conflagration, the pupils, which number more than 150, had retired from the exercises in the chapel to their class rooms when the alarm was sounded. The fire which broke out in the dormitory, had gained great headway, while the rooms and corridors of the building were full of smoke.

No One Hurt.

As the alarm of fire was passed from class room to class room, consternation prevailed and it was with the utmost difficulty that the faculty, by an effort of great coolness and presence of mind, succeeded in getting the young women from the burning building unhurt. Citizens in large numbers rushed to the scene and lent a helping hand in the removal of the pupils and an effort to save their belongings. Several pianos and part of the magnificent library were saved.

At the time of the fire the air was still, which prevented the town from being destroyed.

Outside Aid.

The Paris and Carlisle fire departments responded to an urgent call, but upon arrival at the scene, their services were not needed. The loss is approximately $30,000, with $15,000 insurance. The seventy young women board-schools are being cared for in residences of the people of Millersburg and a meeting of the citizens will be held this afternoon to discuss the reconstruction of the school and rebuilding of the structure.

The college is under the direction of the Kentucky Conference of the Methodist church, South, and was erected before the war. The building was destroyed by fire in 1878, when the modern structure destroyed to-day was built.

LOST HIS TOBACCO BARN.

Farmer Was Attending Sick Son When Fire Broke Out.

Augusta, Ky., Oct. 9.—[Special.]—While walking from the dining room of his residence, the Hon. W. W. Field, of Brooksville, fell dead from heart disease. He was sixty-four years old. Judge Field was for years one of the foremost men of the county; a leader in the Democratic party; for eight years County Judge and a member of the Constitutional Convention of 1890, representing Bracken county. He had retired from the active practice of law. He had been a member of the firm of Clarke & Field, one of the strongest law firms in the county. He leaves a family. He was a large land owner.

More Than $32,000,000 Loaned Out Last Year.

Kellogg to Call W. G. Rockefeller to Explain.

Treasurer Tilford Again On the Witness Stand.

MORE ABOUT "LIQUIDATION."

New York, Oct. 9.—The method through which the trustees of the Standard Oil trust liquidated the company in order to comply with the order of the Ohio courts was further unfolded to-day when Wesley H. Tilford, treasurer of the Standard Oil Company, of New Jersey, was recalled to the witness stand in the Federal suit against the so-called trust.

Statements compiled from stock books of the various subsidiary companies during the trust liquidation were placed on the record, and from these and from Mr. Tilford, the Government's counsel, Frank B. Kellogg, says that the gravamen of the Government's charge that only a pseudo liquidation was effected and that the trust continued as an entity and under the same control as at the time of its inception in 1882, has been proved.

Constant Control Maintained.

Mr. Kellogg was able to develop that the liquidating trustees and their associates liquidated only enough trust certificates to give them a majority of the stocks of the twenty subsidiary companies, and that they voted these stocks as individuals and maintained a constant control over the integral companies. The dividends declared on the stocks of these companies were paid directly to those holders who had liquidated the trust certificates and to the trustees who held the stocks against the unliquidated certificates of the trust. Mr. Kellogg showed that the trusts and one or two associates were the only certificate holders who liquidated their shares in the Standard Oil trust.

Mr. Tilford testified that the cross-town pipe line under Central Park, whose ownership has caused considerable perplexity to the Federal counsel when it did not appear on the books of the Standard Oil Company, of New York, after 1906, was still owned by the New York company.

Millions Loaned Out.

Mr. Kellogg again tried to find out the reasons for the large loans, amounting to several millions, given to P. S. Trainor by the Southern Pipe Line Company. Efforts to ascertain the nature of these loans at a previous hearing failed.

That the Standard Oil Company, of New York, was a lender of millions of its surplus funds was testified to-day by Mr. Tilford. It was developed that over $32,000,000 was loaned last year to "interests other than the Standard."

What these interests were and the nature of the loans, Mr. Tilford was unable to say. Mr. Kellogg said he would call William G. Rockefeller, treasurer of the company, to throw light on these loans.

DROVE TO DEATH

IN A FLOODTIDE CONCEALED BY DARKNESS.

Father and Daughter Drowned In Barren River While Returning Home.

Glasgow, Ky., Oct. 9.—[Special.]—Abe Thompson, a farmer of the southern part of this county, and his daughter, Hattie, were drowned in Barren river last night.

Mr. Thompson and his daughter went across the river to visit Dr. Harris and also to borrow a wagon for the purpose of coming to town to-day. While at Dr. Harris' there came a ten-foot rise in the river and on returning home they drove in the river unaware of the rise, it being dark, and were drowned together with the team.

The accident was not known for some time. Becoming uneasy Mrs. Thompson telephoned Dr. Harris' place and was told Mr. Thompson and daughter had been gone some time. Mrs. Thompson notified the neighbors and a search was begun. A party went to the river and saw where the Thompsons had driven into the stream, and seeing the unexpected rise in the river their fate was at once known.

Mr. Thompson was fifty years of age, while his daughter was twenty. Besides his wife he leaves a large family of children.

INCIDENTS OF THE TRIP.

Western Kentucky will talk of nothing for the next month but Bryan and the Bryan trip through that section of the State. People are still scattered about the various counties on their way home after going to one or the other of the points at which the Nebraskan stopped. Some of those men had traveled fifty miles, in buggies and on horseback to hear Mr. Bryan, and they will be a couple of days getting home. Every man of them says the trip was worth while and that Mr. Bryan is the greatest man in the world.

The Bryan party began breaking up at Paducah last night and the tour was ended in Louisville yesterday morning when Mr. Bryan left the party and went to Indiana. He crossed this morning with his throat in bad condition. It was inflamed and he talked with difficulty, but was confident that his voice would come back to him after he began to talk again. He showed no other effect of the hard two-days' campaign and was just as enthusiastic as when he first started from Louisville on Monday morning. Gov. Beckham fixed up a throat wash for Mr. Bryan this morning, after the Nebraskan had suggested that he might use some court-plaster on his throat, and the wash helped considerably. A good breakfast also improved his condition, and when he told the party goodbye at the Fourteenth-street station he was able to talk louder and clearer.

BRADLEY'S PARDONS EXCEED BECKHAM'S

RECORDS REFUTE CHARGES OF REPUBLICAN SPEAKERS.

FIGURES ARE 448 TO 355 IN FELONY CASES.

BRADLEY AND EX-CONVICTS.

Frankfort, Ky., Oct. 9.—[Special.]—Owing to misrepresentation by Republican campaign speakers of the record of Gov. Beckham in the matter of granting pardons to convicted persons during the seven years he has been Chief Executive, done for the evident purpose of making a favorable showing for former Gov. Bradley, Secretary Leigh, of the State Department, has made an inspection of those records with the following results: From February 1, 1900, to October 9, 1907, 355 pardons were granted by Gov. Beckham for life sentences, pardons of felons before trial, and convicts who were detained through no fault of their own from entering service immediately after conviction.

Pardons of felons during the administration of Gov. Beckham for nearly eight years, from February 1, 1900, to October 9, 1907, 355. This includes several commutations from death to life sentence, pardons of felons before trial, and convicts who were detained through no fault of their own from entering service immediately after conviction.

The list also includes the large number of remissions granted by the Governor in the cases of Louisville druggists, confectioners and others, who were arraigned by Magistrate Huffman, an tremendous outpouring of people, in his district that he

New Albany Will Improve
West Main Street.

SANITARY SEWER SYSTEM FIN-ISHED AFTER MANY YEARS.

WATER COMPANY INSTRUCTED TO FLUSH ALL LINES.

JOHN CONKLIN AS INSPECTOR.

A resolution, adopted at the meeting of the New Albany Board of Public Works yesterday, provides for the improvement of West Main street, from East Tenth street to the city limits, by the laying of vitrified brick, on a foundation of Portland cement and broken stone. November 2 was fixed upon as the date on which objections of property owners will be heard. It is understood there will be but little opposition.

The New Albany Water Company was instructed to turn the water in the flush tanks of the sewer system in order that the mains may be thoroughly cleansed. An order was also issued to the ice companies and breweries to turn the waste water from their establishment into the sanitary sewer. A claim of $75 against the sewer contractors, held by Maj. Thomas Stout for injuries to a horse, was referred to City Attorney Weathers. The City Attorney was directed to prepare a resolution ordering interested property owners to connect with the sewer system, and those who have made connections to change these connections to the sanitary sewer. Street Commissioner John Conklin was appointed sewer inspector, and will have complete charge of the system until some other arrangement is made.

A resolution was adopted, fixing the boundaries of the sewer system for the purpose of making an equitable assessment of the cost of the improvement. This will be published in an order that property owners interested may be apprised of the location of the boundaries.

George J. Long has a very promising candidate for the Kentucky Derby of 1908. The colt is a chestnut by Falsetto-

Sevilla, called Macias, and is a large and rangy-looking youngster. If turned out this winter he will be a grand three-year-old, as he looks to have grown too fast this year to make much of a showing.

second money on Blaze O'Light. He squeezed through a small opening twenty yards from the wire and virtually stole the place from Foy. Jockey Skirvin made his appearance in the saddle for the first time since he injured his foot.

S. W. Street is a wonder when it comes to getting dicky-legged horses in shape. Copperfield looks to have regained his old-time form under the traitor's hand.

Another fairly good card is in order for Thursday with seven races, the Straight Road Purse, at one and one-

With only six starters the race will furnish good sport and should be one of the best betting events of the meeting, as almost every horse entered has a chance to land the long end of the purse. Schilling got away in front with Laura

Clay and stole away from his field before the other boys realized what he was doing. Powers messed Rustle about the first part then took the filly in the worst going in the stretch.

LIVELY GOSSIP OF THE GAME.

Tom Jones, the clever first baseman of the St. Louis Browns, pulled off a play recently in St. Louis that the Mound City fans will be a long time forgetting. Strange enough, the play also came up in the final Chicago series at St. Louis and gave Chicago the run that won the game.

In the eighth inning, with the score a tie at 3 to 3, two down and Pat Dougherty on second, Jones jumped into the firelight. Hub Hart, a left-handed hitter, sent an easy roller down between first and second. Jones, who had been easily felled by Nihil, lunged forward over into the second baseman's territory to get it. "Bill! Dineen had no idea that play team. Either Louche, his son or to its credit. The play was pulled off in Boston, and Elberfeld, Chase and Conroy turned the trick. Winters was pitching for Boston and Armbruster was catching. With Louche at first, Griff at second and Conroy at third, the Griff squad was to squeeze play. Winter got next to the play and pitched out. As Winter started his motion Elberfeld, Chase and Conroy stepped to advance. The pitch-out was made and Elberfeld slid over the plate before Armbruster could get the ball on him. Chase pulled up at third and Conroy at second. Chase attempted to steal home a moment later in the same game but was faked only by the narrowest of margins.

After the fifth inning things began to break badly for the famous spittball artist, and he could be heard growling at Tim by the fellows who were seated on the bench.

This kept up until the last half of the ninth inning, when Ed came to the bench, raising all kinds of kicks about the work Tim was doing.

"You're a damn good one (time ago that Hurst was an angel)," exclaimed Manager McAleer.

"Well," replied Walsh, as he bit savagely into a wad of chewing gum, "I wish to goodness that he was one now."

When the merry Mr. Waddell who

When the thought gradually permeated the brain of Mr. Waddell he immediately informed his companions of his resolve to show up the manager.

To this the rest of the bunch objected, telling Rubie that it was too late, anyway, and advising him to stay with the crowd and make a right of it.

"I'll go," he said, "I'll go forward, after considering the matter. I will show up at the theater at any rate and then I'll make up an excuse to pull away again."

So, accompanied by the bunch of Indians with whom he was traveling, Rubie betook himself to the hotel where the play was being pulled off, and arriving there he found the manager in a state of frenzy.

"I've been waiting for you, Mr. Waddell, I doubt that anyone else would

THE CONFEDERACY'S DIRGE.
[Washington Herald.]

The Washington delegation at the Richmond Episcopal gathering occupied the Jefferson Davis pew. A pathetic story of Jefferson Davis during the war is told in connection with this pew. One Sunday in April, 1865, he was in his seat at St. Paul's church, when the door was burst open. In rushed a mud-stained orderly, who clanked his way down the aisle to Davis, saluted the President of the Confederacy and handed him a note which announced that he had surrendered. Davis blanched and he bowed his head and walked slowly out of the church, while the organist, to whom the news had been

This circumstance explains why, notwithstanding the setback in English railways and some other departments during the past few years, the values are, for the most part, well above the level of a decade ago, the aggregate increase in the value of selected list of stocks approaching £38,000,000. The exact figures are as follows:

New York.—With a weak London lead, the market opened very much lower to-day and continued most of the day to sag off. Stock offers were for sale from every quarter and the market was in no condition to stand this selling and each block offered was put out at a price lower than the previous sale. Reading, which has been the main issue in the market for some weeks, succumbed to the pressure and sold four points lower than the previous price of yesterday. There were frequent rumors of new necessity liquidation, and learning the foreign selling continued got to the top of the market and offered stocks freely. Stop orders were caught in many stocks. But the Chicago Tub and its company has in Chicago Tub had an engagement to go out with some congenial spirits, who were to appear in the town thoroughly. It took quite awhile to look for the Tub, but he came at last, and thoroughness. Hours had sped by and the Tub had not appeared. The Tub brought him in his engagement to appear on the stage of the theater that night.

When this thought gradually permeated the minds of the company, they went on to-night.

And for the love of all creation, who do you refuse to know the Tub as a recognized manager, as he pawed the Tub, he replied Waddell with a flourish, "I refuse to appear before you absolutely refuse to appear before you."

And with that this gallant actor turned on his heel and, despite the protests of his company, he disappeared. He was marked out of the door and joined the wedding companies on the outside.

Struck New Home Telephone Ordinance.

MAYOR CONSIDERS CALLING EXTRA COUNCIL SESSION.

WHALEN AND FRIENDS PULL WIRES FOR MEASURE.

PRESIDENT KERR CRITICISED.

Mayor Robert W. Bingham, when asked yesterday afternoon whether he would call a special meeting of the General Council with a view to having it take some action on the ordinance creating a new franchise for the Home Telephone Company, replied that he had not fully made up his mind on the matter. He implied by his answer, however, that he is considering such action. The Mayor, it is said, favors the passage of the ordinance, and it has been pointed out that several of the Mayor's staunchest supporters are heavy stockholders in the Home Telephone Company. What was done by the Council Tuesday night, it is conceded, has killed the ordinance.

Want Two To Vote For Ordinance.

Politics played a conspicuous part in the proceedings of the General Council Tuesday night. All day Tuesday the politicians were busy pulling wires, and arranging for a joint session of both boards at 9 o'clock in order that two men, who are favorable, it is said, to the passage of the telephone ordinance, might be elected to fill the two vacancies in the Board of Aldermen. It was the plan, according to those who profess to have been on the inside to elect in joint session two members of the Board of Aldermen, have the lower board members of the General Council pass the telephone ordinance, and later to have both boards adopt an adjourning resolution calling for a special meeting of the General Council last night, with a view to having the upper board pass the ordinance at that time. Alderman Gruber introduced the resolution calling for a joint session, and its defeat, it is said, blocked materially the plans of those who were working for the passage of the telephone ordinance.

Another Crack At Ordinance.

The second blow to the friends of the ordinance fell when the upper board adjourned suddenly, after having passed a resolution calling for a meeting of the General Council two weeks hence. An adjourning resolution calling for a meeting of the General Council last night was not adopted by the lower board. It is said, but the action of the upper board in adopting the ordinance, and that might appoint a twelfth member of the board, who would vote for the franchise. The board would leave only one vacancy for the General Council to fill at the next meeting.

Governor May Appoint One.

Following the defeat of Alderman Gruber's resolution, it was pointed out that the General Council has the right to fill only one of the vacancies in the upper board, the Governor never having named the twelfth member of this body. A rumor was current about the City Hall yesterday that the Governor had been appealed to by those most interested in the passage of the telephone ordinance, and that he might appoint a twelfth member of the board, who would vote for the franchise. The board would leave only one vacancy for the General Council to fill at the next meeting.

Whalen Working For Ordinance.

Among those outside the Council who were most active in trying to have the ordinance passed were two friends of John H. Whalen, James B. Brown, former chairman of the Board of Public Works, and Frank McGrath. They made themselves conspicuous in the General Council Tuesday night by holding numerous conferences with a member of the lower board who was leading the fight in behalf of the passage of the telephone ordinance.

President Kerr Criticised.

E. B. Kerr, president of the lower board of the General Council, was severely criticised yesterday by some of those who witnessed his methods from the start of the ordinance. The beginning of the discussion on the telephone ordinance Mr. Kerr vacated his chair for the members of the city council to attend to the ordinance. He later forgot himself, it is said, and argued in favor of the passage of the ordinance while acting as presiding officer. This, it is said, was highly improper on his part, and by some it is held as one of the reasons why the ordinance failed to pass going back to the Revision Committee instead.

Does Not Fix Rate.

One objection on the part of those who are fighting the passage of the telephone ordinance is that it does not contain a section specifying the rate the Home Telephone Company may charge as rental of telephones. The only section touching on this point being one which specifies that the General Council shall fix on a fair charge to be made by the company. The only way the General Council could fix on a "fair rental," it is said, would be to go over the company's books and base its calculations accordingly. No rate except a fair rate would be acceptable to the telephone company, it is said. As a "fair rate" is provided for in the ordinance, the General Council, it is said, would have but little say in what a "fair rate" of rental is.

City Would Lose Good Revenue.

Another objection to the ordinance under consideration is that it would release the Home Telephone Company from the contract it now has with the city of Louisville. The contract, from the standpoint of the city, is an excellent one, it is said, inasmuch as it provides for the payment to the city of a bonus on every telephone installed within the city limits by the Home Telephone Company, over and above a certain number. The city, it is said, derives a revenue of about $15,000 annually that it will not derive in case the ordinance is passed.

Internal Revenue Collections.

The Internal Revenue collections yesterday kept up to the high mark that has been maintained for some time. Collections kept to range over $80,000 a day mark. The total collections for yesterday were $79,034, divided as follows: Lists, $2,818; beer, $190; whiskey, $58,489; cigars, $209; tobacco, $20; 47.52; special tax, $137.28; and bottling stamps, $52.
